

Audi Development Camp
Pilot project 2019 - Introduction

Current state

Audi Development Camp

> Audi needs engineers:

- > In higher quality
- > Larger volume
- > Have relevant skills
- > Fast!

> Higher education system should be innovated

> Fully project based education

- > Target group: MSc vehicle / mechanical engineers from anywhere

> Format

- > Teams of 5 members
- > Competition between teams
- > Led by industrial experts
- > Final project presentation: in front of Audi Hungaria representatives

> Duration:

- > 4 weeks project
- > ~8 hours of work / day
 - > 15% teaching + 15% presentation + 70% teamwork

Goals in details

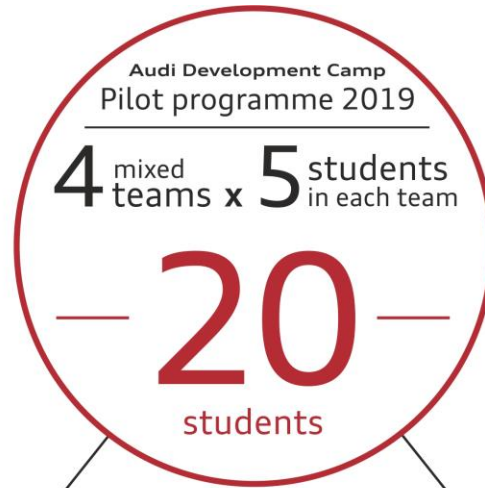

Short-term objectives in 2019

- › Beginning with a pilot phase
- › Volume: 15 to 20 students
- › Selection by admission interviews
- › Industry-relevant assignments
 - › Hybrid powertrain design
- › Coordinators from Audi Hungaria
- › Concept: mentorship structure
 - › [2-4 renowned engineers (F1, DTM..)]
 - › [5-7 'good educators']
 - › [Team coordinators for each team]
- › Improve skills & competences
 - › Proactivity, leadership, stress tolerance, communication, creative thinking, teamwork, computer modelling

Mid-term objectives from 2020

- › Volume: 50 students / summer
- › Intensive 6 weeks summer programme

Target group

12 Msc students from technical universities. Each delegates 2

from SZE 8

2 Bsc
+
6 Msc
free slots
- anyone can apply

Developed competences by ADC

